

CERTIFICATION STATEMENT

Each registered entrant, competing in the JJUMP Short Film Challenge, agrees to the following conditions. These conditions apply to all phases of the competition, including the Kick-off, Execution & Submission and Screening phases.

Originality

Ideas and concepts presented in this team's entry, and the entry itself, are the original work of the entrants, and that each entrant is not under any agreement or restrictions which prohibit or restrict his/her ability to disclose or submit participate in the Challenge activities.

Compliance with Challenge Rules

Each entering team member has reviewed the rules and guidelines of the JJUMP short film challenge ( see "Rules and Regulations" section of the web site ), and certifies that this entry and all members of the team are in compliance with the competition guidelines.

Waivers and Releases

Each entrant understands that JJUMP and any Challenge organizers, judges, or other related personnel are volunteers and are under no obligation to render any advice or service to any contestant competing in the Challenge. The views expressed by judges, organizers, sponsors, or other persons related to the Challenge are their own, and not those of JJUMP or any other person or entity.

All members of entrant teams also understand and agree that although Challenge organizers will make the best efforts regarding confidentiality of the ideas and plans submitted by entering teams, the legal protection of the ideas and plans is the sole responsibility of the members of the entrant team. In consideration of the time, expertise, and other resources provided by the Challenge organizers, judges, and other related persons, each entrant hereby voluntarily releases all Challenge organizers, judges, and personnel from any further liabilities, responsibilities, and accountabilities relating to or arising from this competition.

Each applicant grants permission to the Challenge to publicize their name(s), photos, and a description / screening of their short film if they are short-listed or named finalist or winner of the Challenge.
